

John Gast's American Progress

- How are animals portrayed? What kinds of animals are there? What are they doing?

- How are Native Americans portrayed? What are they doing?

- How are white settlers/pioneers portrayed?

- How does the artist use light and color to send a message?

- What or who do you think the robed figure in the middle represents?

- The title of the painting is American Progress. What is progress, and how is progress represented in this painting?

- What other details do you notice that seem interesting or important to the message of the painting?

- What is the message of this painting?

- What is the message of this painting?

- What other details do you notice that seem interesting or important to the message of the painting?

- The title of the painting is American Progress. What is progress, and how is progress represented in this painting?

- What or who do you think the robed figure in the middle represents?

- How does the artist use light and color to send a message?

- How are white settlers/pioneers portrayed?

- How are Native Americans portrayed? What are they doing?

- How are animals portrayed? What kinds of animals are there? What are they doing?