

We Shall Remain: Tecumseh's Vision

1. Tecumseh was described as having “a brief and meteoric career.” What do you think this means?
2. Tecumseh was critical of those among his tribe who took an “accommodationist stance.” What kinds of people could he be talking about?
3. The Shawnee tribe was located in what part of the United States?
4. “Tecumseh is a man of very strong medicine.” What did this indicate about his personality?
5. Right at the time of Tecumseh’s birth, it is clear that _____ will be a factor in his life. What will be a factor?
6. What was Tecumseh like growing up as a boy? He was said to have a “natural charisma.” What does this mean? Do you know someone like this?
7. His younger brother was Lalawethika--what was he like? What is it like to be a younger sibling when you have a popular, successful older sibling?
8. For the Shawnees, the American Revolution would prove nothing less than cataclysmic. In this context, what do you think “cataclysmic” means?
9. Land gives us what Jefferson calls “an empire of liberty.” What did TJ mean by this?
10. Indian nations begin to unite in a confederation after the Revolution. What’s a confederation?
11. What will Tecumseh’s legacy be? In other words, how will we remember him?