FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIPS

For those students and parents who require assistance in meeting the financial requirements of attending Archbishop Carroll, there are several forms of aid available. The application process for each is described here.

ARCHDIOCESAN AID: These tuition assistance awards are based on family income. The application forms are provided by the Archdiocese of Washington and may be obtained at the following locations:

1. Archbishop Carroll's Admissions Office
2. All Catholic elementary schools
3. www.catholicschoolswork.org

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS: These scholarships are awarded to incoming Freshmen. Eligible applicants will be notified upon acceptance to the school. Eligible accepted students will be given an application and asked to write an essay by a given deadline.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS: These scholarships are awarded after acceptance. Awards are available for vocal and instrumental performance. Interested students should contact the Music Department to arrange for an interview and audition after being accepted to Archbishop Carroll. Applicants must provide a typed essay of no more than 200 words on "Why I want to study music."
