TODAY IS WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 2015
AND IT IS A D-DAY

We will follow the REGULAR SCHEDULE today.
Let us remember…that we are in the holy presence of God.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO: Ryan Conschafter, Jacob Riester and Patrick McCann!

Please welcome our Marauder for a Day: Jackson Connor!

Attention freshman! Those freshman who are scheduled to attend today's freshman class retreat are to report to Deacon Bill in the Brotherhood Commons immediately following the first period bell. Please leave all books and cell phones in your locker!

Please consider stopping in our chapel today, even if only for a moment, for Eucharistic Adoration. Members of the freshman class are on retreat and your prayers on their behalf are always welcomed and appreciated. Other members of the extended St. Joe's community will be there as well throughout the day.

Attention seniors: November SAT scores have arrived in the guidance office. If you would like your transcript re-sent to a college with the new scores, please see your counselor.

Art Club will hold its annual edible Christmas art activity tomorrow, after school in the art room. Stop in when you are done helping with the Food Basket Truck Loading and decorate yourself a cookie and eat it too! We will also experiment with making snowflakes cut out of paper. All are welcome.

Chinese Culture Club will meet today 2:30-3:30 p.m. in room 217. We will continue playing Chinese chess games. All are welcome.

The SJCI SKI CLUB WILL NOT SKI THIS FRIDAY. The make-up date is March 11th. Our first trip will be Friday January 8th. Please remember that you have a Friday Night Season Pass, even when there are no buses you can ski if you can arrange your own transportation. You can pick up a lift pass at customer service if you show your ID.

There are only two days left of Food Basket, for all those who have and haven't donated yet we ask you to help us finish this drive off well. Those in Cattaragus and Erie County desperately need your help. Don't forget the winning homeroom of each grade wins a donut breakfast, the homeroom with the most items donated gets a gift basket, and for every twelve items you bring in you are entered to win a pair of Sabres tickets! Make Christmas special for someone this season, bring in those items!

Attention juniors, there will be a representative from Josten's in the lobby by the gym during lunch periods on Thursday to resolve any problems or issues with the class of 2017 rings.

Our first “DRESS DOWN DAY” is scheduled for FRIDAY. This annual campaign is in support of or “Twin School; Mt. LaSalle College, located in Naka, Nigeria. In order to participate; please see Mr. Thoin, outside of Mr. Folt's office in the morning prior to homeroom. The cost of participation is $4.00 prior to Friday and $5.00 the day of.

TODAY IN THE CAFETERIA:
Chicken Finger Sub, Turkey/Ham on a Hard Roll
Alyssa's Better Choice: Roasted Veggie Sub
Sides: Cheesy Potato Soup, Orange Wedges or Quinoa Tabbouleh

SJCI SPORTING EVENTS FOR TODAY
Freshman Basketball vs St. Mary’s – 4:00 p.m. (St. Mary’s HS)
Varsity Swimming vs Canisius – 5:30 p.m. (Buffalo State)
JV White Hockey vs Canisius – 6:30 p.m. (Depew Ice Pavilion)